

International Safety Systems, Inc. Presents

Free Webinar series on Safety for EHS Professionals – May 2020

Rigging Practices, Mobile Cranes Safety, Hoists Safety, Machine Tools Safety

Rigging Practices (May 5, 2020)

Mobile Crane Safety (May 12, 2020)

Hoists Safety (May 22, 2020)

Fixed and Portable Machine Tools Safety (May 26, 2020)

Time: 10:00-11:00 AM EST

Total: 1 hour per session, 4 hours (all sessions)

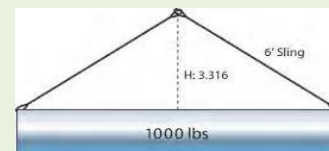

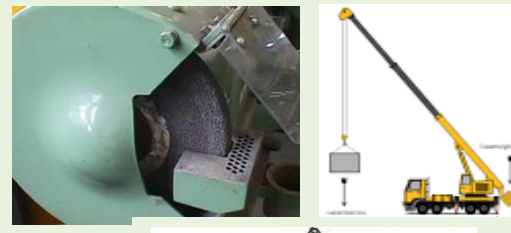

CM points: 0.66 (all sessions) for CIH, 0.4 (all sessions) for CSP

Based on 30+ years of experience from a CSP including 40,000 + tons of construction of a refinery and steel plant

Learning from Participants - Interactive - Engaging - Polling Questions

Topics:

- Accidents and Incidents – Lessons Learned
- OSHA Standard 1926.753, 1926.251, 1910.179 and 1910.180
- Lifting tools and tackles – wire ropes, shackles, slings
- Significance of boom angle, operating radius with mobile crane
- Placement of outriggers and soil compactness
- Safe work practices
- Anti-two blocking device on hoists
- Pedestal and fixed grinders, ring test, mounting, spacing between tool rest
- Machine guarding and other portable tools safety
- Electrical safety including reverse polarity and double insulation

Webinar Faculty:

Maharshi Mehta, CSP, CIH, FAIHA has 30+ years of experience in providing industrial hygiene and safety services at more than 500 workplaces in 30 countries in multiple industries, including construction, metals and mining.

Maharshi worked at construction sites in establishing and implementing safety programs of refinery and steel palletizing plant where 40,000 tons of mechanical and civil construction was completed without a major injury.

Contact Ankit Sharma (Ankit.Sharma@issehs.com) and Prasanth K. (Prasanth.K@issehs.com) for queries.

Detailed course outline and webinar log-in details will be sent to registered participants.

Register Online At: <http://www.issehs.com/FreeEHSWebinars.php> Webinar is Limited to 30 participants

Global Offices: USA Ireland Germany India China
www.issehs.com